

Community members patiently wait for their H1N1 and seasonal flu vaccinations courtesy of Clackamas County Community Health.

Free haircuts were provided by Natalie Bogart and Shelley Miotke of BC Cutz and Laura Duede of Maccabees Salon.

Patients check in at the Fox Park Welcome Center.

: Over 25 resource booths were staffed by local and county organizations focused on health and healthy living.

The Silverton Hospital Network provided free diabetes screenings as well as free skin cancer screenings to community members.

Community members receive their vaccinations.

Free haircuts were provided by Natalie Bogart and Shelley Miotke of BC Cutz and Laura Duede of Maccabees Salon.

Translation services were provided at the event by Country Church volunteers and the Unidos Club members.

Grace Lutheran Church volunteers man the hospitality area at the Molalla Cares Health Fair.

Local and county-wide resource booths participate in the first Molalla Cares free community health fair on October 10.